Adlai Rebukes 'Peace Cries' By 'Hucksters'

Nixon And Kefauver Needled As Stevenson Seeks Minnesota Vote

EVELETH, Minn. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson last night accused the administration of "a deadly drift" while a chorus of Madison Avenue hucksters cries peace—peace and prosperity.

Stevenson jokingly likened Vice President Nixon to a "national calamity," and rebuked Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), with whom he is contesting in next Tuesday's Minnesota primary for delegates to the Democratic presidential nominating convention.

Stevenson said the GOP apparently has accepted the stock market as a national economic barometer.

"On Wednesday," he continued, "when the President seemed to reopen the door to Richard, I heard the stock market reacted to Vice President Nixon's improved political position by going up a few points."

"I don't know exactly what this means. But I do recall that the market normally rises in the face of a declaration of war or other national calamity."

TERMING THIS a "time of great decision, of great danger and great promise," Stevenson said:

"Abroad we can see the fires of nationalism flaming across Asia and Africa. We can hear the voices from the Kremlin pronouncing a new foreign policy, aimed at capturing the uncommitted third of the world—the third that controls the delicate balance of peace."

At home, he said, there is a farm depression and racial unrest in the South that threatens a constitutional crisis. "And with all this," he said, "comes a sense of drift in Washington, a deadly drift that goes on..."

Stevenson, endorsed by the state Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) party, said:

"I regret that your congressman, John Blatnik, and other DFL leaders should be attacked by my distinguished and respected friend, Senator Kefauver, merely because they saw fit to endorse me."

"We all know the unrelenting purpose of the Republicans is to divide the Democrats and set us to fighting among ourselves. Certainly the Republicans should not have the assistance of Democrats in that mission."

Kefauver, campaigning at Duluth, said he would not comment on Stevenson's remarks.

"You will not hear one word from my lips, not one word of criticism of Mr. Stevenson," Kefauver said. "He is a man of high principles."

In a speech in Duluth yesterday, Kefauver said "there are ominous signs that we may be walking up to the brink again." The threat of war this time, said the Tennesseean, is in North Africa and the Middle East. He declared:

"I do not think that it was Secretary of State Dulles who brought us back from the brink of war. I think we came back by the grace of God."

Did you ever know that there's a Wright - Patterson Institute of Technology at the Dayton Air Force base?

I hadn't known it until I heard from Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson of the Greenfield - Sabina Road, whose son, First Lt. Ronald E. Anderson, just graduated from the Institute.

I think the thing that impressed me most was the degree Lt. Anderson earned: a Master of Science in nuclear engineering.

Outside of the fact that it has something to do with the booming field of atomic power, I couldn't even guess what nuclear engineering is.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson attended their son's graduation at the Air Force base. They report that he has been assigned to the national laboratory at Oak Ridge, Tenn., cradle of the atomic bomb.

Senate Hopes To OK New Farm Bill Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fatigued but still full of fight, the Senate met today for a session which leaders said should bring passage of a new farm bill.

Both Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Republican Leader Knowland of California urged senators to stay nearby, ready to vote and compile action.

A 12-hour session yesterday reshaped several sections of the omnibus bill but still left a thick stack of proposed amendments undecided.

Both Sen. Ellender (D-La.), floor manager for the bill, and Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), who speaks for the Eisenhower administration on it, said they expect to wind up action sometime tonight.

The highly controversial measure, already containing features the administration opposes, then moves to the House, which voted last year for a two-year restoration of mandatory rigid supports on basic crops. The Senate voted instead, by close margins, to stick with President Eisenhower's system of flexible and lower supports.

Eisenhower lost a round yesterday, however, as the Senate voted 45-44 to retain a "dual parity" system for determining the price support levels of wheat, cotton, corn, peanuts and other crops eligible for the price props.

Under "dual parity," farmers can use the higher of old or new systems for computing a fair exchange value on their crops. Converted from a few cents a bushel or pound onto existing price supports, the differences could mean hundreds of millions of dollars on crops this campaign year.

Sen. Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture who has opposed high-level supports, said "dual parity could cost up to a billion dollars in all."

Other senators thought it might mean up to $400 million more to farmers or in government farm costs.

If the final farm bill includes this, Anderson said, "I think the President will be inclined not to sign it."

Just before quitting last night the Senate by voice vote added $100 million to the soil bank plan in a move led by Sen. Allott (R-Colo.). That raised the authorized total to $1.2 billion.

Under the administration-sponsored soil bank proposal, farmers would be paid for retiring land from production. This is designed to reduce the multibillion-dollar stocks of farm surpluses in government hands.

Allott won approval of a boost from $350 million a year in funds authorized for the conservation reserve, or long-range phase of the soil bank.

These are payments that would go to farmers who contract to convert croplands into grass, trees, water storage or similar conservation uses. Farmers must agree to divert these lands for 3 to 15 years.

The other part, the acreage reserve, now earmarks $750 million for each of four years to farmers who agree not to plant allotments to wheat, corn, cotton, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

Highway Safety Warning Issued

COLUMBUS (AP)—The director of Ohio's highway safety department warned motorists of bad driving conditions over the state today. He especially directed his warning to basketball fans following their teams to the state high school tournaments.

Teen-Age Boy Executed In Electric Chair

COLUMBUS (AP)—Bernard Schreiber, 19, last night became the 299th victim of Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair. The frail youth was executed for the rape-slaying of a 17-year-old Toledo girl.

Schreiber was the 10th teen-ager executed for murder in Ohio since 1897. He appeared calm until the end, his eyes closed almost constantly and his lips moving slightly as he whispered the Lord's Prayer.

The Toledo youth was convicted for the murder of Mary Joanne Friess in a wooded area near Toledo Aug. 12, 1954.

The youth, wearing gray trousers, black shoes and a white shirt without a tie, entered the death house aided by two priests.

Schreiber sagged in the big chair as 4,400 volts passed through his body. Dr. R. H. Brooks, the prison physician, pronounced him dead at 8:12 p. m.

The youth, though permitted to see relatives, had no visitors on his last day. He last saw his father, mother, sister and brother on Tuesday.

Schreiber's last meal was a big one. He ordered:

Fresh shrimp cocktail, roast prime ribs of beef, french fried potatoes, buttered whole greens, head lettuce with mayonnaise, pumpkin pie with ice cream, hot rolls and butter with strawberry preserves and coffee, milk and a soft drink.

The bosses of the Jaycees were given a thumbnail picture of what the Junior Chamber of Commerce here has accomplished in the last year following the dinner at "Boss's Night," which the organization holds once a year.

Held at the Country Club Thursday night, "Boss's Night" was primarily a social event which closed on a serious note.

Joining in the visiting before dinner were the bosses and their wives and the wives of the Jaycees. Over the whole party, however, there was an atmosphere of warm and informal friendliness.

Omar Schwartz—everyone in the gathering called him Jim—was the master of ceremonies for the after-dinner program and introduced some of the guests.

Robert Callison, the president, presented an award to the Record-Herald "in recognition and appreciation... of the inestimable benefits which have accrued from a cordial relationship, together with the hope that the future may witness the same splendid cooperation."

The certificate of award was assigned by the national president and executive vice president and President of the Washington C. H. Jaycee and Richard R. Willis, Jr., the secretary. The award was accepted for the Record-Herald by Howard S. Harper, the editor.

Similar recognition had been prepared for station WCHO, but there was no one there to receive it, the president said.

PRESIDENT Callison, in capsulizing the Jaycee accomplishment here this year, three fund-raising enterprises and nine major projects to which, he said, the Jaycees had given a total of 1,060 man hours.

He then broke down the figures to show that the Jaycees put in 75 hours in promoting the circus they sponsored last summer to raise $283; 200 hours on the "dunking machine" they had at the Fair to raise $237 and 40 hours on the Passion Play they sponsored to raise $279.

That was summarized to show they spent 315 hours to make $799. He also noted that the Lions Club had made a contribution of $250 and other donations amounting to $200 to help along some of the projects.

He listed the nine major projects and what they cost in money and man hours as: Fourth of July celebration $527 and 200 hours; comfort station (toilets at park) $550 donations and 100 hours; Halloween parade 70 hours; Voice of Democracy competition $75 and 20 hours; Nativity scene (Christmas time) 20 hours; parking signs $30 and 5 hours; Christmas lighting contest $25 and 20 hours and Scout troop 300 hours.

The projects, then, cost a total of $657 in cash from the Jaycee pocketbook and "45 hours of work."

He commented with a grin that: "This is to be the only case I know where it took about 2½ times as long to spend money as to make it."

TAKING A LOOK into the future, Callison hit some of the highlights.

Schools Close; Cars Stuck; Robins Glum

The birds quit chirping Friday. Encouraged by a streak of pleasant weather last week, and perhaps by the fact that the calendar said Spring was just five days away, the robins had appeared on Fayette County lawns again.

Friday morning, the weatherman jolted the poor birds plenty—not to mention what he did to the humans.

By noon, he had dumped just a fraction under five inches of snow on birds and people alike, and countryside. Worse still, predictions indicated that from two to four more inches were on the way.

The snow wasn't scheduled to let up before midnight, the predictors said.

Schools throughout the county closed as drivers gave up the struggle to ram busses through drifts. Motorists by the score abandoned their cars and walked to work.

And before 11 A. M., half a dozen motorists who had tried to drive came to grief in three smashups, one in the city and two out in the country.

From the office of Sheriff Orland Hays came word that driving conditions were "terrible." Mrs. Hays, holding down the office while the sheriff and his deputies sloughed through the snows to investigate a pair of wrecks, reported that roads throughout the county are "slick and icy" under the drifting snow.

"It seems it rained, then sleeted and froze before it snowed," Mrs. Hays reported. "Those roads are treacherous."

A TOTAL of 18 crews from the city, county and state highway garages had plows, graders and salt trucks out battling the snow... an almost futile battle.

But as Stan Helfrich of the (Please Turn to Page Two)

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France apparently have reached basic understanding on the military measures they may take if an Israeli-Arab war breaks out.

That was the interpretation diplomatic quarters here put on British Prime Minister Eden's cryptic reference yesterday in London to his inability to make public any Big Three military decisions because of constitutional differences between them.

The big difference is between the British government's ability to take decisive military steps on its own authority and the power which President Eisenhower may have for action in a crisis.

The American President is commander in chief of the armed forces but Congress has the constitutional responsibility to declare war. Eisenhower has said frequently he has no intention of engaging U. S. forces in military operations abroad without consulting Congress. Precisely how this would apply in the event of an extreme Middle East crisis has never been exactly defined.

SOME OFFICIALS say they privately foresee the possibility of war developing so quickly that the President might be faced with a necessity of almost instant action as was the case with former President Truman when the Korean conflict erupted.

In the next few days, it now seems certain they will propose a resolution to the United Nations Security Council designed to achieve two major purposes — if the Soviet Union does not veto it:

1. To put the Arab states and Israel alike on notice that the U. N. will react swiftly if either side starts a war.

2. To strengthen the U. N. truce supervision group under Canadian Gen. E. L. M. Burns. His force now totals about 40 officers.

6-Inch Fall Due Parts Of Buckeye State

But Weatherman Says White Stuff Will Not Stay on Ground Long

(By The Associated Press)
Snow covered most of Ohio today and the weather bureau said its depth might reach six inches in some parts of the state by night-fall.

Snow was general except in the extreme southeast portion of the state where rain was falling.

But the weather bureau indicated that the white stuff would not remain long on the ground. Higher temperatures in the next five days are expected to melt the cover.

This meant a probable rise in river levels. The Ohio River already is brim full.

Here is the bureau's extended five-day forecast for Ohio:

Temperatures will average three to five degrees above normal; normal high 46-52; normal low 29-33. Warmer Saturday and Sunday, turning colder Tuesday or Wednesday. Next precipitation occurring as rain Tuesday or Wednesday with total two-tenths to four-tenths of inch.

THE HEAVY snow moved into Ohio late last night and early this morning, spreading rapidly over the state. The weather bureau said the snowfall is associated with a low pressure area which moved out of Texas in the last 24 hours.

At the same time the bureau said the low is moving northeastward and as it moves into West Virginia, the wind over Ohio will swing around to the northwest and the snow will then change to light snow flurries. Most of the snow should end by this evening, the bureau added.

Warmer air now moving into the central plains states will begin to move into Ohio tomorrow and much of the snow remaining at that time will turn into slush or disappear, weather forecasters said.

By early morning about four inches of snow had accumulated over Central Ohio; Dayton reported 3, Toledo 3, Columbus 3, Cincinnati 2, deepening in all (Please Turn to Page Two)

Couple Leaves For New Home Without Baby

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (AP)—The Gerald Damman's headed for a new home in Iowa today, sad but hopeful that someday some clue will disclose what happened to their missing 3-year-old son.

Gerald, 26, and his wife Marilyn, 22, packed with tears in their eyes yesterday as 2-year-old Pamela, their other child, romped around amid shipping crates.

The couple's little boy Steven disappeared here last Oct. 31 from in front of a supermarket. His mother had left him outside for a few minutes with Pamela, who was in a baby carriage.

Damman has been stationed with the Air Force at nearby Mitchell Field. His four-year enlistment was up three months ago, but he has been getting 30-day extensions in the hope some word would be received concerning Steven.

The family is going by car to Newton, Iowa, and will live on a farm belonging to Damman's father.

Mrs. Damman said: "It's just like leaving part of yourself behind. I don't believe we'll ever see Steven again, but we can never adjust our lives without him."

"I have two theories," the father said. "I think Steven was picked up by a woman who wanted a child or that he was stolen for the black market baby racket."

Prospectors Swarm Northeastern Ohio

KENT (AP)—The hills of Northeastern Ohio are swarming with prospectors.

Kent State University last week announced a new course on how to prospect for uranium. Professor Carleton Savage thought it might interest 10 or 15 students.

For the first session this week, 45 men and 7 women showed up and the registrar got calls from dozens more.

Savage decided to limit enrollment to the first 30, said the rest could come back next year.

Schools throughout the county closed as drivers gave up the struggle to ram busses through drifts. Motorists by the score abandoned their cars and walked to work.

And before 11 A. M., half a dozen motorists who had tried to drive came to grief in three smashups, one in the city and two out in the country.

From the office of Sheriff Orland Hays came word that driving conditions were "terrible." Mrs. Hays, holding down the office while the sheriff and his deputies sloughed through the snows to investigate a pair of wrecks, reported that roads throughout the county are "slick and icy" under the drifting snow.

"It seems it rained, then sleeted and froze before it snowed," Mrs. Hays reported. "Those roads are treacherous."

A TOTAL of 18 crews from the city, county and state highway garages had plows, graders and salt trucks out battling the snow... an almost futile battle.

West Said Set For New Action

Big 3 Policy Arranged If Mid-East Flares Up

WASHINGTON (P) — The United States, Britain and France apparently have reached basic understanding on the military measures they may take if an Israeli-Arab war breaks out.

That was the interpretation diplomatic quarters here put on British Prime Minister Eden's cryptic reference yesterday in London to his inability to make public any Big Three military decisions because of constitutional differences between them.

The big difference is between the British government's ability to take decisive military steps on its own authority and the power which President Eisenhower may have for action in a crisis.

The American President is commander in chief of the armed forces but Congress has the constitutional responsibility to declare war. Eisenhower has said frequently he has no intention of engaging U. S. forces in military operations abroad without consulting Congress. Precisely how this would apply in the event of an extreme Middle East crisis has never been exactly defined.

SOME OFFICIALS say they privately foresee the possibility of war developing so quickly that the President might be faced with a necessity of almost instant action as was the case with former President Truman when the Korean conflict erupted.

In the next few days, it now seems certain, they will propose a resolution to the United Nations Security Council designed to achieve two major purposes — if the Soviet Union does not veto it:

1. To put the Arab states and Israel alike on notice that the U. N. will react swiftly if either side starts a war.

2. To strengthen the U. N. truce supervision group under Canadian Gen. E. L. M. Burns. His force now totals about 40 officers.

6-Inch Fall Due Parts Of Buckeye State

But Weatherman Says White Stuff Will Not Stay on Ground Long

(By The Associated Press)
Snow covered most of Ohio today and the weather bureau said its depth might reach six inches in some parts of the state by nightfall.

Snow was general except in the extreme southeast portion of the state where rain was falling.

But the weather bureau indicated that the white stuff would not remain long on the ground. Higher temperatures in the next five days are expected to melt the cover.

This meant a probable rise in river levels. The Ohio River already is brim full.

Here is the bureau's extended five-day forecast for Ohio:

Temperatures will average three to five degrees above normal; normal high 46-52; normal low 29-33. Warmer Saturday and Sunday, turning colder Tuesday or Wednesday. Next precipitation occurring as rain Tuesday or Wednesday with total two-tenths to four-tenths of inch.

THE HEAVY snow moved into Ohio late last night and early this morning, spreading rapidly over the state. The weather bureau said the snowfall is associated with a low pressure area which moved out of Texas in the last 24 hours.

At the same time the bureau said the snow is moving northeastward and as it moves into West Virginia, the wind over Ohio will swing around to the northwest and the snow will then change to light snow flurries. Most of the snow should end by this evening, the bureau added.

Warmer air now moving into the central plains states will begin to move into Ohio tomorrow and much of the snow remaining at that time will turn into slush or disappear, weather forecasters said.

By early morning about four inches of snow had accumulated over Central Ohio; Dayton reported 3, Columbus 3, Cincinnati 2, deepening in all (Please Turn to Page Two)

Couple Leaves For New Home Without Baby

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (P)—The Gerald Damman headed for a new home in Iowa today, sad but hopeful that someday some clue will disclose what happened to their missing 3-year-old son.

Gerald, 26, and his wife Marilyn, 22, packed with tears in their eyes yesterday as 2-year-old Pamela, their other child, romped around amid shipping crates.

The couple's little boy Steven disappeared here last Oct. 31 from in front of a supermarket. His mother had left him outside for a few minutes with Pamela, who was in a baby carriage.

Damman has been stationed with the Air Force at nearby Mitchell Field. His four-year enlistment was up three months ago, but he has been getting 30-day extensions in the hope some word would be received concerning Steven.

The family is going by car to Newton, Iowa, and will live on a farm belonging to Damman's father.

Mrs. Damman said: "It's just like leaving part of yourself behind. I don't believe we'll ever see Steven again, but we can never adjust our lives without him."

"I have two theories," the father said. "I think Steven was picked up by a woman who wanted a child or that he was stolen for the black market baby racket."

Prospectors Swarm Northeastern Ohio

KENT (P)—The hills of Northeastern Ohio are swarming with prospectors.

Kent State University last week announced a new course on how to prospect for uranium. Professor Carleton Savage thought it might interest 10 or 15 students.

For the first session this week, 45 men and 7 women showed up and the registrar got calls from dozens more.

Savage decided to limit enrollment to the first 30, said the rest could come back next year.

Band Concert Is Next Week

WHS Band Getting Ready Three Months

Long hours of practice for 165 boys and girls who make up the Washington C. H. High School concert band today were drawing to a close with the approach of the annual spring concert coming up Thursday and Friday.

This will be the 12th concert for the band under the direction of William B. Clift, but about the 25th since the band was first organized here by Karl J. Kay. Five of those concerts were given by the band under the direction of Paul Fitzwater, Bandmaster Clift's immediate predecessor.

Members of the band have been selling the tickets for the last week — on a competitive basis as usual — and these tickets may be exchanged for reserved seats at Patton's Book Store Saturday. The tickets are to be put up at 8 o'clock, Clift said.

Ever since the close of the football season, when the marching band was shifted over into a concert band, the boys and girls have been practicing in their band room in the high school building the last period of the day five days a week. That means that they have been getting ready for the concert for more than three and a half months. But, Clift said, there never has been so much as a murmur of complaint; actually, he added, they are always ready and willing to practice as long as possible. He attributed this attitude to two things: (1) the band members have a good time together and (2) their pride in the band is boundless.

New risers for the stage are here and ready for use at the concert. They will make it possible for the band to be in four semi-circular rows, one above and back of the other. The band this year is the biggest the school ever has had, Clift said.

The program for the concert will be presented in two parts. It will have the marches as the foundation, but will include trios, a couple of solos and some novelties among the 16 numbers on it.

For a good many years, the concert was given on only one night, but as the prestige of the band grew, and with it the attendance, it has been necessary to give the concert on two nights. And, the records show that for the last several years they have drawn virtually capacity audiences.

In view of the advance sale of tickets, Clift suggested that reserved seats be secured as soon as possible.

Jaycee Boss's Night

spots of the program already lined up by the organization. He said the Jaycees hope to have the comfort station in the park completed soon; that a rodeo for teen-agers, designed to teach better and safer driving, would be staged next summer; a Fourth of July celebration would be arranged again; the Voice of Democracy contest repeated; the outstanding young man would be selected and a junior tennis tournament sponsored.

He also revealed that plans were in the making to expand the leadership training course. He placed considerable emphasis on the value of this, especially to the Jaycees. AFTER EMCEE Schwartz had made some comedy awards to Jaycees—to Frank Weade, who aspires to the state Legislature; Tom Mark and John Craig—he paid serious compliment to William Williams for his work on the Jaycee-sponsored Scout troop and Dave Ogan, the chairman of the comfort station committee.

The evening's program was brought to a close with an address by Will Hellerman of Columbus.

He complimented the Jaycees here for their enthusiasm and accomplishments that have accrued from their cooperative efforts and told of some of the purposes and achievements of the International Junior Chamber of Commerce which, he said, now reaches into 96 countries in the world.

For the dinner, the tables were colorful with baskets of spring flowers and streamers of green and white. The big baskets of flowers were presented to some of the guests at the close of the meeting.

state highway garage said, "It's snowing just as fast as we can get it up. We're just making a circle, cleaning up a place, going on and then coming back to clean it up again."

The state garage had seven crews out Friday morning, Helfrich reported, three on plows, two on salt trucks and two more on combination plow-and-salt trucks. A total of 17 workers manned the seven trucks.

The county garage sent out six plows and two graders, with a complement of 14 men. Other men from the garage were at work cleaning up the sidewalks and steps at the Court House.

Plans were to send out salting trucks early in the afternoon to work on slick spots on county roads, according to Joseph Merritt, superintendent of the county garage.

The city sent out three salting trucks with eight men to work on streets here in the city.

BOTH SCHOOL systems, in the city and Miami Trace districts, were shut down tight by the un-Springlike weather.

A few bus drivers in the county got their full quotas of pupils according to Supt. W. W. Boyer of the Miami Trace district. Those few were sent right back with their charges, he said.

"Most of the drivers just could not make it, though," he said.

In the city, youngsters who got through the snow were sent back home, too, said Supt. W. A. Smith of the city schools. The possibility of more snow on top of what already choked the streets and sidewalks was just too much, he said.

None of the city busses even got going, Supt. Smith reported.

The children really missed very little school time, though, since Friday was to have been only a returned to this city to make their future home.

Mrs. Arthur Current of Good Hope, was admitted to Memorial Hospital, Thursday, as a patient for medical care.

Walter Stackhouse was returned from Memorial Hospital, to his home in Sabina, Thursday. He is recovering following surgery.

Mrs. Ray Vaughn, Route 1, South Solon, is a patient in Memorial Hospital, for observation and treatment. She was admitted Thursday.

Ralph Toppins, Route 4, was dismissed from Memorial Hospital, Thursday, after being a medical patient.

Mrs. Homer Wagner, Route 3, Sabina, was released from Memorial Hospital Thursday. She was a medical patient.

Mrs. Alice Davey of Sedalia, a patient in Memorial Hospital for observation and treatment, was released Thursday.

half-day session anyway.

The Fayette County Teachers Association meeting, scheduled for Friday afternoon, would have cut short both city and county school sessions if they had got underway. Reports from the Union Bus Station here were that almost every bus into the city was running nearly an hour behind schedule.

Neither the Dayton Power & Light Co. nor the Ohio Bell Telephone office here had reported any lines down by noon.

But the snow was still falling.

Snow Hits Ohio

places as the snow continued to fall.

In Zanesville, most of rural Muskingum County schools closed for the day due to deep snow on the highways.

The storm hit Northeastern Ohio in time to snarl the morning rush traffic. Three inches fell from 6 to 8 a. m. in Cleveland. Cleveland-Hopkins Airport was closed to all traffic at 7 a. m.

The Ohio Turnpike was snow-covered and slippery.

In Akron, an inch and a half of snow at 7 a. m. caused a bad traffic jam. The police said it was the worst they'd ever seen.

IN YOUNGSTOWN, three inches of snow tangled traffic to a halt, lining it solid on five bridges in the downtown section.

The additional precipitation is expected to send the Ohio River to 54.5 feet at Cincinnati early next week. Flood stage there is 52 feet.

Elsewhere the river was reported at even flood level (40 feet) at Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., yesterday and was expected to crest at flood level (53 feet) at Greenup, Ky., today.

At Ashland, Ky., the river is expected to crest today at 51.5 to 52 feet. Flood stage is 51 feet.

This was the second time in a week that the Ohio has been threatened with floods but so far damage has been light.

state highway garage said, "It's snowing just as fast as we can get it up. We're just making a circle, cleaning up a place, going on and then coming back to clean it up again."

The state garage had seven crews out Friday morning, Helfrich reported, three on plows, two on salt trucks and two more on combination plow-and-salt trucks. A total of 17 workers manned the seven trucks.

The county garage sent out six plows and two graders, with a complement of 14 men. Other men from the garage were at work cleaning up the sidewalks and steps at the Court House.

Plans were to send out salting trucks early in the afternoon to work on slick spots on county roads, according to Joseph Merritt, superintendent of the county garage.

The city sent out three salting trucks with eight men to work on streets here in the city.

BOTH SCHOOL systems, in the city and Miami Trace districts, were shut down tight by the un-Springlike weather.

A few bus drivers in the county got their full quotas of pupils according to Supt. W. W. Boyer of the Miami Trace district. Those few were sent right back with their charges, he said.

"Most of the drivers just could not make it, though," he said. In the city, youngsters who got through the snow were sent back home, too, said Supt. W. A. Smith of the city schools. The possibility of more snow on top of what already choked the streets and sidewalks was just too much, he said.

None of the city busses even got going, Supt. Smith reported. The children really missed very little school time, though, since Friday was to have been only a returned to this city to make their home.

Mrs. Arthur Current of Good Hope, was admitted to Memorial Hospital, Thursday, as a patient for medical care.

Walter Stackhouse was returned from Memorial Hospital, to his home in Sabina, Thursday. He is recovering following surgery.

Mrs. Ray Vaughn, Route 1, South Solon, is a patient in Memorial Hospital, for observation and treatment. She was admitted Thursday.

Ralph Toppins, Route 4, was dismissed from Memorial Hospital, Thursday, after being a medical patient.

Mrs. Homer Wagner, Route 3, Sabina, was released from Memorial Hospital Thursday. She was a medical patient.

Mrs. Alice Davey of Sedalia, a patient in Memorial Hospital for observation and treatment, was released Thursday.

Mrs. Ralph Jacobs, Route 3, Mt. Sterling, entered Memorial Hospital, Thursday as a patient for medical care.

Mrs. George Byrd, Route 1, Bloomingburg, a medical patient in Memorial Hospital, was dismissed Thursday.

half-day session anyway.

The Fayette County Teachers Association meeting, scheduled for Friday afternoon, would have cut short both city and county school sessions if they had got underway.

Reports from the Union Bus Station here were that almost every bus into the city was running nearly an hour behind schedule.

Neither the Dayton Power & Light Co. nor the Ohio Bell Telephone office here had reported any lines down by noon.

But the snow was still falling.

places as the snow continued to fall.

In Zanesville, most of rural Muskingum County schools closed for the day due to deep snow on the highways.

The storm hit Northeastern Ohio in time to snarl the morning rush traffic. Three inches fell from 6 to 8 a. m. in Cleveland. Cleveland-Hopkins Airport was closed to all traffic at 7 a. m.

The Ohio Turnpike was snow-covered and slippery.

In Akron, an inch and a half of snow at 7 a. m. caused a bad traffic jam. The police said it was the worst they'd ever seen

IN YOUNGSTOWN, three inches of snow tangled traffic to a halt, lining it solid on five bridges in the downtown section.

The additional precipitation is expected to send the Ohio River to 54.5 feet at Cincinnati early next week. Flood stage there is 52 feet.

Elsewhere the river was reported at even flood level (40 feet) at Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., yesterday and was expected to crest at flood level (53 feet) at Greenup, Ky., today.

At Ashland, Ky., the river is expected to crest today at 51.5 to 52 feet. Flood stage is 51 feet.

This was the second time in a week that the Ohio has been threatened with floods but so far damage has been light.

Back Taxes Hit 25-Year Low

County Second Low In State Listing

Delinquent taxes in Ohio have dropped to the lowest level in a quarter of a century, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

And right at the forefront of the cleanup of back taxes is Fayette County. The county has the second lowest total of unpaid personal property and real estate taxes in the state, according to figures released by Rhodes' office.

Fayette County's delinquent tax total stands at $12,247.30. Of that amount, $11,468.43 is real estate taxes and $778.87 is personal property taxes.

Only one of Ohio's 88 counties has a lower tally of delinquent taxes. That is Shelby County, whose total is $7,947.38. Of that amount, $5,725.51 is real estate taxes and $2,221.87 is personal property taxes.

Statewide, the total stands at $39,405,431.33. Of that, $31,251,361.92 is real estate taxes and $8,154,069.51 was in personal property taxes.

The totals were reported by each county auditor. Fayette County's auditor, Harry Allen, turned in the total for this county. Treasurer Charles Fabb does the tax collecting here.

In 70 percent of all fatal automobile accidents, one or both drivers violated one or more safety laws.

Double Feature Program Planned For Central PTA

A talk on safety, entitled "A Ray of Hope," and a musical program by the pupils of the third grade classes which meet in Grace Methodist Church, are to highlight the Central School Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the Little Theatre at 7:30 P. M. next Tuesday.

Frank E. Laderer

Frank E. Laderer, the associate director of Nationwide Insurance, is to tell the group of "A Ray of Hope" in his talk on safety.

Laderer, a native of Grove City, Pa., now lives in Columbus. He is an alumnus of Pennsylvania State College, where he studied safety engineering, public speaking and insurance.

After going with the Pennsylvania State Highway Department and McDonald Construction Co. in Butler, Pa., Laderer entered the field of insurance, with emphasis on the safety aspects, in 1935 and is still in that business.

Details of the program that will be put on by the third graders have not been disclosed. The teachers of the two classes that meet in Grace Church are Mrs. John Trace and Mrs. Carl Meriweather.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

Types of homes lived in by persons in different parts of the world have formed the basis of an interesting project in Mrs. Rider's fourth grade at Rose Avenue.

After studying the different types, some of the pupils made models illustrating the various homes: Pigmy huts, complete with models of some of the pigmies, were made by Shirley Crawford and Judith Hatfield.

Charlotte Goolsby and Kresha Harper made an Eskimo igloo, while Geraldine White, Shirley Bennington, Linda McCarty, and Carol Wallace made two desert homes and a pyramid.

When the boys and girls learned that one of the main foods of the desert people was dates, it was discovered that many in the class had not tasted dates. Barbara Rose brought a package to school and everyone was treated to a sample.

Friday the Citizenship Club met with Pamela Graves, Judy Hatfield and Kresha Harper in charge. Responsibility, duty and self-reliance were discussed.

Some of the things mentioned were:

- (1) Do assigned jobs without being reminded.
- (2) Help with home chores, such as washing dishes.

- (3) Handle books carefully, with clean hands.

(4) Don't write on desks, sidewalks, walls, or damage property in any way.

(5) Stick with jobs you start and when you have finished one, find another one.

(6) While the teacher talks with visitors, keep busy.

(7) Do errands cheerfully, and quickly and do not expect pay.

4-H Club Activities

WAYNE PROGRESSIVE FARMERS

Six new members were added to the Wayne Progressive Farmers 4-H club at a recent meeting, at which a fish fry March 30 and the program for the year were discussed.

Jim Butcher lead the group in the 4-H Pledge to open the meeting. Nancy McFadden, secretary, called the roll. There were 26 of about 35 members present.

The new members were Gary Taylor, Jerry Roosa, Craig Thompson, Larry Williams, Donald Strauth, Evelyn Hagard and Lee Ellen Jenks.

Beverly Stanforth outlined the program planned by a committee including Beverly, Billy Herman and Joyce Garringer.

Gene Gustin explained the process of buying Junior Fair Board membership cards.

Alan Wilt appointed the committees for the fish fry, which will be open to the public.

The next meeting will be held March 26.

4-H TRACTOR CLUB

The Washington Implement Company played host at the most recent meeting of the 4-H Tractor Club.

First-year members received instruction on oils for motors and hydraulic systems, second-year members learned of steering and front wheel mechanisms and third and fourth year students received instruction in soil-working instruments.

The next meeting will be held at the Jeffersonville Farm Service.

MAGIC MAKERS

Just to make certain the girls got the point, Pamela Rhoades gave each member of the Magic Makers 4-H Club a toothbrush along with her instruction on proper care of the teeth when she served as health leader at the last club meeting.

The girls planned at that meeting to make tours of the Sagar Dairy, Coca-Cola plant and Memorial Hospital.

The girl met at the home of advisor Mrs. Billie Wilson with Barbara Cahall, club president, leading the meeting. Mary Ann Carr, secretary and Sally Loudner, treasurer, gave reports.

Project books were discussed and worked on before Katherine Sagar, recreation leader, lead the group in a game of charades. Linda Lucas was hostess.

"Whistle Stop" Campaign Seems Unnecessary

There sounds like too much gush talk about President Eisenhower's health and it appears that most of it is purely political and from irresponsible sources at this time.

The whole country has been given a pretty thorough idea about all this in sensible statements from physicians, and from President Eisenhower himself. These statements have been received and accepted at their face value by most people. The ones who continue to stir up campaign talk along this line, are for the most part individual candidates or highly partisan politicians who have but little else to think about other than attempting to create rumors and false charges whereby they hope to benefit themselves.

Attention is called to the fact that Harry Truman was the first president to make a full-time and all-out bid for reelection. Franklin D. Roosevelt made an occasional cross-country trip during election years, ostensibly to inspect some government project in the Far West, speaking to people from his special railroad coach; and Herbert Hoover made a concentrated five-week tour of several states at the close of the 1932 campaign. But neither man went "whistlestopping" the way their opponents or the way Mr. Truman did in 1948. American presidents traditionally have campaigned in and around the White House.

Dwight Eisenhower is going to follow this tradition. He will not leave Washington on any protracted electioneering. It may be that Sen. Knowland will prevail on him to make one of two visits to key areas where GOP voting strength is weak. But such visits would be made by plane and completed in a few hours. "Barnstorming" will be left entirely to the Democratic aspirant.

This is doubtless a wise decision. Mr. Eisenhower indicates that he believes it is unseemly for a Chief Executive to go traipsing about the country, backslapping and shaking hands, wearing Indian and cowboy headgear, posing with pretty girls in front of used-car lots, throwing his arms about every minor party leader he meets, and engaging in all the foolishness which some people usually demand of men seeking national office. By implication Mr. Eisenhower is criticizing Harry Truman's behavior in 1948; yet something more is involved than a partisan commentary on the Truman-Dewey race.

For one thing, President Eisenhower feels that the dignity of the presidency requires him to abstain from campaign flamboyancy. For another, he makes it clear that the pressing duties of his office preclude long stretches of politicking on the road. For a third, he believes he can get his side of the story across through the press and TV without also shouting it from the hustings. As he said recently, he is going to run on his record of the last four years, and no amount of whistlestopping is likely to make that record any less or more appealing to voters.

Dark Blue Inhibits Romance

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Many bosses complain that office girls waste time gossiping in the powder room.

Interior designer Lee Kelly of Chicago has a solution to break up these feminine powwows: Paint the powder room a pure bright red.

"Red is stimulating color that induces restlessness," he says. "In a small room it can give occupants a feeling of claustrophobia. They'll have an urge to get out."

Kelly has a theory that a few buckets of paint can go a long way in improving office efficiency. He believes color can even be used to cut down on clock-watching.

"The sight of greenish-hued flesh makes most people highly uncomfortable," he says, "so all the boss has to do is put a green-tinted picture of himself in the center of the clock."

Kelly has a remedy for stockroom romancing, too. Paint the stockroom dark blue or dark green. They inhibit romance. Magenta, on the other hand, has the opposite effect. A stockroom painted that color might even bring out the cupid in the boss himself.

What about using colors to make the employer more likable to the hired hands? This can be done too.

"Executives ought to consider their personalities more in planning their own offices," holds Kelly. "If he's an excitable type, cool colors such as light green-blue are what he needs. If he's inclined to be moody, he needs warmer hues, such as orange-yellow, brown or ivory."

What about the boss who, whenever you ask him for a raise, always sees red and leaves you feeling pretty blue?

Psychology has scored on another front. The police in Oklahoma City have chipped in and wired their headquarters for piped-in music.

It is believed to be the first police station to do this.

Unfortunately for the prisoners, they don't get the call the tune. The rhythms aren't filtered into the cellblock areas.

However, Chief Roy Bergman plans to bring the music into the traffic ticket citation bureau, so irate motorists can pay their fines to the lilting strains of the latest waltz.

Onward and upward with the ladies: Women today are buying one third of all sports equipment sold in America, as compared with only a tenth nine years ago.

"Women now buy half of all tennis balls and racquets and 65 per cent of the ice skates," said Irving Mages of Chicago, president of one of the nation's largest chains of sporting goods stores. "They also buy 25 per cent of the fishing tackle, 15 per cent of the hunting gear."

"One thing we have learned is that many women go fishing alone. Hence the new demand for a lighter outboard motor they can handle by themselves."

Royal Wedding Offers A Change

By George Sokolsky

As we approach the great wedding which is to take the mind of man off all his troubles and wars and confusions, the subject naturally becomes increasingly interesting although I doubt whether it is really important. At any rate, Grace Kelly of Philadelphia and Rainier Grimaldi of Monaco have established that subsequent to their marriage the aforesaid Grace will no longer play in movies which must be very upsetting to those who had planned to make money out of her. However, they can console themselves by projecting old film in which she appears or they can produce a documentary of the wedding which ought to be interesting, like the coronation of Queen Elizabeth which was quite a show.

I note that when Grace Kelly refers to her betrothed she calls him, "His Highness," which is not characteristic of Americans who do not go in for titles. I thought that Grimaldi was "His Serene Highness" which is quite fancy, although it seemed to me to be something like the "Honorable" which congressmen and such put in front of their names to designate them as persons apart. Even I receive letters occasionally addressed to the "Honorable" where a s for my postman Mister, even abbreviated into Mr., would seem to fulfill required courtesies.

When Americans grow fanciful, they sometimes go to excesses, like speaking of the prospective groom as "His Highness," which is just a crude way of saying, "Look what a fish I caught!"

During my recent and for that matter still current illness, I have been reading areas of our newspapers which I used to skip over as not essential to my life. Those areas are the long columns telling of the doings of all sorts of people unknown to me. It would seem that most of divorce, adultery and seduction and that marriage is regarded as the more incidental occurrence. In fact, some of these writers are able to predict divorces before the parties at issue know about them, this phenomenon being scientifically proved by denials by the parties at issue.

It would also seem that the current fashion for breaking up a marriage is for the husband and wife to lunch together at some such public place as Sardi's Restaurant, where they smile and hold hands and are duly photographed. Then the "estranged" persons go get their divorce. It appears that a divorce is accompanied by some kind of courtship. Also I note from these reports that it is customary for these "estranged" persons to be seen together demonstrably affectionate, in various eating houses, holding hands under the table or dancing cheek to cheek. Nevertheless, they get a divorce on the grounds of mental cruelty.

These new social customs are nearly as mad as our current politics but unless you read these reports, you would not know about them because most human beings still do not encounter such occurrences in their own lives or among their friends. No matter what the statisticians show, most folks when they get married, stay that way, for better or for worse, and who can really tell which is which? Also, if there is a bust-up, it is generally the real thing with much anger and shouting and all the neighbors wondering what got into them. So these items are of interest because they are unusual and deal generally with celebrities who are people that can afford to hire a press agent to keep their names before the public.

Sometimes as I read these peculiar items, I thought that maybe these poor souls were still very much in love and only give out the story of estrangement because the press agent is short of items to keep their names in display. It is possibly so but it would take more research than is worth while to check on all the estrangements to discover whether they are really still living together under one roof. Maybe marriage has a greater survival power among these celebrities than the news items would indicate.

Another thing about this new sociology, is the phrase, "mental cruelty," which seems to imply a mentality or a sensibility among the parties at issue. But the question does arise—it really must—whether thoughtful or sensitive persons would permit their private lives to be exposed so casually. This is a psychological rather than a sociological problem and we shall leave it. (Copyright, 1955, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Stored Fresh Meat Should Be Watched

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Meat won't keep forever even in your refrigerator. Of course, you should never eat meat or any other food which appears to be spoiled.

Spillage indicates the presence of conditions which disease-producing bacteria need for their growth and multiplication. It does not mean that these bacteria are present, but it does mean they may be present. And that's reason enough for not eating such food.

Refrigeration Needed

Meat is especially apt to become contaminated with bacteria of the Salmonella group. For this reason, good refrigeration is essential.

Still, there is a time limit for keeping meat in your refrigerator before eating it. Generally, meats can be kept safely refrigerated in the ice box—36 to 38 degrees—in your home according to the following scale:

- Chicken (not frozen)—2 days.
- Hamburger—2 days.
- Liver (sliced)—4 to 5 days.
- Loin pork chops—3 days.
- Loin lamb chops—5 to 6 days.
- Leg of lamb roast—6 to 7 days.
- Lamb hearts—2 days.
- Lunch meats, uncut liver sausage, bologna and frankfurters—4 to 5 days.

Pork sausage links—3 days. Rib roast—5 to 8 days. Dry and semi-dry uncut sausage—2 to 3 weeks.

Sweetbreads—2 to 3 days. Round steak—3 to 5 days. Veal chops—5 to 6 days. Veal liver—2 to 3 days. All frozen foods should be stored at temperatures under 40 degrees until they are eaten.

One more thing to remember: Since heavy freezing may kill its sues, meats may become much more susceptible to bacterial invasion after thawing.

Dillon Dam Backers Plan Fund Appeal

ZANESVILLE (U)—Fred E. Merrell, manager of the Zanesville Chamber of Commerce, Congress man John E. Henderson of Cambridge and representatives of the Ohio Valley Assn. are planning to appeal Tuesday to the House Subcommittee on Appropriations for funds to resume work on the $25 million Dillon Dam here.

Work on the dam across the Licking River was suspended three years ago after $9 million had been spent on the project.

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

The Best Crowd to Follow... Is the Crowd Going to Church.

"You must not follow a multitude to do evil; nor go with a multitude to prevent justice," Exo. 23:2. What do you see in a crowd? Kings and tyrants have seen riot, rebellion and bloodshed. Jesus saw helpless, oppressed humanity as sheep not having a shepherd. Great crowds always mean some kind of hunger. Don't criticize them, try to understand and help them. When the multitude was hungry, Jesus fed them; when they were confused, He taught them; when sick, He healed them; when in trouble, He helped them. Help your friends by inviting them to church.

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

The Best Crowd to Follow... Is the Crowd Going to Church.

"You must not follow a multitude to do evil; nor go with a multitude to prevent justice," Exo. 23:2. What do you see in a crowd? Kings and tyrants have seen riot, rebellion and bloodshed. Jesus saw helpless, oppressed humanity as sheep not having a shepherd. Great crowds always mean some kind of hunger. Don't criticize them, try to understand and help them. When the multitude was hungry, Jesus fed them; when they were confused, He taught them; when sick, He healed them; when in trouble, He helped them. Help your friends by inviting them to church

Gleaners Class Holds Meeting At Peters Home

A postponed meeting of the Gleaners Class of McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Florence Peters.

The meeting was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Clarence Campbell, who read Scripture from St. Luke, which was followed with prayer by Mrs. Clifford Foster.

Mrs. Hazel Hidy led in the devotions which included Scripture from Isaiah and an article entitled "I Saw God Wash the World" by Mrs. Clarence Campbell.

The usual reports were given and approved and thirteen members responded to roll call.

Plans were made to furnish a potted lily to be used at the Easter service at the church, and also for a covered dish dinner which will precede the April meeting to be held at the church and guests will be included.

The meeting was adjourned with the class benediction and two clever contests conducted by Mrs. Hidy and Mrs. Peters, provided pleasant entertainment with the awards going to Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mrs. Clifford Foster.

Later tempting refreshments were served by Mrs. Peters with Mrs. Hazel Hidy as her co-hostess.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Bruce King and she used as her topic for discussion "Why I Do Not Drink" with other articles read on the subject were: "Glory To Gutter" by Mrs. Ralph Braden; "Shall We Tolerate the Flying Saucer" by Mrs. King and a lengthy discussion was held on the sale of intoxicating drinks on planes.

Mrs. Braden also discussed hearings on the Lauger Bill and members reported on letters they had received from their Senator regarding the Lauger Bill.

Mrs. John Kneisley read a poem entitled "The Cross was His Own" and the meeting was adjourned with the WCTU benediction.

During the social hour Mrs. Harper was assisted by Mrs. Bruce King in the serving of refreshments.

Women's Society Celebrates 50th Anniversary

The fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Women's Society of Union Chapel Methodist church, at Yatesville, was celebrated at a special meeting Thursday afternoon at the church when members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service entertained at a special meeting and tea with several guests included.

The church was beautifully decorated in a yellow color scheme with arrangement of daffodils, tulips, snapdragons and chrysanthemums used in a profusion of bloom.

The opening hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers" sung by the group was followed with praying of the Lord's Prayer led by Mrs. J. W. Looker, president, who extended a warm greeting to the many guests. Among them were Mrs. J. A. Wissler of Jeffersonville, a former member of the early society of the church.

The first society organized by the ladies was the Mite Society of which Mrs. Wissler was a member.

The program was in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. Herbert Wills, Mrs. Roscoe White-side and Mrs. Clark Durlinger.

The first number was a poem "The Singing Revenge" by Mrs. Aurville Will, which was followed with a vocal duet "Whispering Hope" by Mrs. Fred Groves and Mrs. David Whiteside, a history of the church given by Mrs. Eben Thomas.

Mrs. Herbert Ticketts gave an interesting story using the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" into which she wove thoughts of the approaching Easter Season.

The closing hymn "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" was followed with prayer by Mrs. Durlinger.

Later the members and guests were invited to a beautifully appointed tea table for the serving of dainty refreshments and the decorations carried out in yellow was an arrangement of beautiful spring flowers flanked with white tapers in crystal candelabra with Mrs. Eugene Denen presiding over the punch bowl and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

Guests were from Jeffersonville, London, New Vienna, Washington C. H., Bloomington, Madison Mills, New Martinsburg and Sedalia.

Mrs. Boswell Presides At Club Meeting

Mrs. Russell Knapp entertained nine members of the ART Home Demonstration Club Thursday evening for the regular meeting and included three guests.

The president, Mrs. Wayne Boswell, conducted a lengthy business session and gave a detailed account of President's council meeting she attended recently and outlined the calendar of projects for the coming year.

Mrs. Boswell also announced that the county is without a Home Demonstration Agent, due to the resignation of Mrs. Mytilene Finken and that she would be replaced soon.

Mrs. Mary Hyer and Mrs. Floyd Miller were appointed to be in charge of the placing exhibits at the annual achievement Day, April 13, at the Dayton Power and Light Company club room as the assignment for this club, and Mr. Wayne Boswell and Mrs. William Peacock will supply the cookies for the club.

Mrs. Boswell distributed pamphlets, and gave an interesting talk on "nutrition" which is the project for the clubs during the month of March.

At the conclusion of the meeting Miss Helen Slavens showed colored slides taken at the meetings of the club and also scenes taken on recent trips.

The remainder of the evening was spent on work to complete the making of hooked rugs.

Later Mrs. Knapp was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Miller in the serving of tempting refreshments suggestive of St. Patrick's Day.

Guests included were Mrs. Elizabeth Armsey, Mrs. Ruth Paxson and Mrs. Sheldon Grubb.

Church Society Is Entertained By Miss Fogle

The regular March meeting of the Women's Missionary Circle of First Baptist Church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Nelle Fogle with twenty members present.

The meeting opened with devotion led by Miss Bertha Graves, who reviewed the life of Christ from the birthday which is celebrated at Christmas, speaking of the miracles he performed and also his crucifixion. She used Scripture from St. Mark, read a poem "G. God I Cannot Bear These Crosses, They Are So Hard" and the closing prayer was offered by Miss Mabel Briggs.

Mrs. John Case, president, conducted the business session, which included the regular reports and special reports of 25 calls made by members.

Mrs. Kenneth Chaney read a letter of thanks from the Dayton Christian Center for a White Cross box of clothing sent by the society. Mrs. Frank Reno, devotional chairman, gave an outline of work for the year and Mrs. Otto Reno read a letter from the Baptist Missionary Training School for girls in response to gifts sent.

Miss Golda Baughn, president of the Clinton Baptist Association, was a guest and gave a summary of work planned for the year.

Mrs. Case appointed Mrs. Frank Reno, Mrs. Thomas Cullen and Mrs. Richard McLean as the nominating committee to choose officers for the coming year.

The program was in charge of Miss Bertha Graves, and included a playlet, entitled "Attending a Church School Meeting in West Berlin" with Miss Graves, Mrs. Thomas Cullen, Mrs. Robert James, Mrs. Eugene Thompson and Mrs. Richard McLean taking the parts.

Mrs. Norman D. Renn closed the meeting with prayer and during the social hour Miss Fogle was assisted by Mrs. Charles Manker, and Mrs. Lora Penwell in the serving of a tempting refreshment course.

Newcomers Club Makes Plans For Benefit Party

Mrs. Allen McClung, president, conducted the regular meeting of the Newcomers Club held Thursday evening in the club room at the Washington Lumber Company.

The secretary, Mrs. Jack Montgomery, read the minutes of the February meeting, and Mrs. Harold Allen, treasurer, also gave her report, both of which were approved.

A lengthy discussion was held on a style show and benefit card party to be held Friday, April 20, in the Dayton Power and Light club room.

Mrs. J. B. McCordle demonstrated the making of corsages and furnished flowers for each member to make their own corsage, under instructions and they were kept as favors.

Plans were made for the two bridge groups of the club to combine for a party at the Hotel Washington Tuesday, March 20 at 8 P. M.

The meeting was adjourned and in a pleasant contest the winners were Mrs. Harold Kenyon and Mrs. James Evans.

During the social hour, tempting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Eldon Carlin, Mrs. Allen McClung and Mrs. Clifford Doster.

Members present were: Mrs. J. B. McCordle, Mrs. Joe Hobbie, Mrs. Warren E. Hobbie, Jr., Mrs. Frank P. Karney, Mrs. Richard Filbin, Mrs. Frank Alexander, Mrs. Fred Domenico, Mrs. Glen Allen, Mrs. LaVerne Haugen, Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mrs. Elsie Maddux, Mrs. Glen Helms, Mrs. Harold Allen, Mrs. Dwight Bell, Mrs. Fred Braddock, Jr., Mrs. George Griswold, Mrs. Jack Montgomery, Mrs. Joe Rush, Mrs. Charles Erb, Mrs. Harold Kenyon, Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. Charles B. Girl Scout Week Observed Here

65 Girls Active In Organizations

Girl Scouts, Brownies and adult leaders in Fayette County are this week quietly celebrating the 44th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the U. S.

There are roughly 65 girls active in Girl Scout or Brownie units in Fayette County with two Scout troops and one Brownie troop in Washington C. H. and one Scout and one Brownie troop in Jeffersonville, according to leader, Mrs. Betty Rhoads.

Started in about 1913, Girl Scouting has been moving slowly here since then. But efforts are being made to include Fayette County in a Girl Scout district now being organized, with the hopes of increasing activity and enrollment here.

As it now stands, each unit is virtually independent, with the sanction of the national organization.

Mrs. Betty Rhoads and Mrs. Charles Killinder are each in charge of a patrol in the two-patrol Troop One in Washington C. H. Miss Wilma Lee and Miss Esther Walton are leaders of Troop Two.

Mrs. John Boylan and Mrs. Robert Dempsey lead the Brownie troop here.

In Jeffersonville, Mrs. Tom Sams is the current Girl Scout leader. She has resigned her post but will continue as leader until a replacement can be found. Mrs. Robert Lower and Mrs. Samuel Lower are leaders of the Jeffersonville Brownie troop.

Brownies are aged 7 to 10. Girl Scouts range in age from 11 to 16.

Mickey Cohen's Wife Leaving Him

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Florist Mickey Cohen's wife Lavonne, who stood by him for 15 years through bombs and bullets when he was a gambling boss, has sued him for divorce. She alleged cruelty.

Cohen, who served time for income tax evasion, came out of federal prison last October. Saying he was through with gambling for good, he went into the flower and plant business.

"Mick is still the greatest little guy in the world to me, but we just can't get along," said Mrs. Cohen.

Girl Scout Week Observed Here

65 Girls Active In Organizations

Girl Scouts, Brownies and adult leaders in Fayette County are this week quietly celebrating the 44th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the U. S.

There are roughly 65 girls active in Girl Scout or Brownie units in Fayette County with two Scout troops and one Brownie troop in Washington C. H. and one Scout and one Brownie troop in Jeffersonville, according to leader, Mrs. Betty Rhoads.

Started in about 1953, Girl Scouting has been moving slowly here since then. But efforts are being made to include Fayette County in a Girl Scout district now being organized, with the hopes of increasing activity and enrollment here.

As it now stands, each unit is virtually independent, with the sanction of the national organization.

Mrs. Betty Rhoads and Mrs. Charles Killinger are each in charge of a patrol in the two-patrol Troop One in Washington C. H. Miss Wilma Lee and Miss Esther Walton are leaders of Troop Two.

Mrs. John Boylan and Mrs. Robert Dempsey lead the Brownie troop here.

In Jeffersonville, Mrs. Tom Sams is the current Girl Scout leader. She has resigned her post but will continue as leader until a replacement can be found. Mrs. Robert Lower and Mrs. Samuel Lower are leaders of the Jeffersonville Brownie troop.

Brownies are aged 7 to 10. Girl Scouts range in age from 11 to 16.

Mickey Cohen's Wife Leaving Him

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Florist Mickey Cohen's wife Lavonne, who stood by him for 15 years through bombs and bullets when he was a gang boss, has sued him for divorce. She alleged cruelty.

Cohen, who served time for income tax evasion, came out of federal prison last October. Saying he was through with gambling for good, he went into the flower and plant business.

"Mick is still the greatest little guy in the world to me, but we just can't get along," said Mrs. Cohen.

Simmer your gravy about 5 minutes to make sure the flour is cooked.

Watch those snap beans as they cook! They should be just tender, with a trace of crispness.

Middletown, Troy-Luckey Pilots Named Top Coaches

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Paul Walker of Middletown, winner of three Ohio high school Class A basketball championships, and Doyce Felere of Troy-Luckey (Wood County), today were named the state's top scholastic cage coaches.

The pair of 44-year-old mentors was selected by brother coaches and sports writers in the annual poll conducted by The Associated Press in connection with the All-Ohio team voting.

Walker, winner of the Class A award, is in his 11th campaign with the top-ranked Middies. Over that stretch he has won 193 and lost 39, grabbing the state championship in 1947, 1952 and 1953.

A native of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., Walker was graduated by Western Kentucky in 1935. At Anchorage, Ky., High School his teams won 44 and lost 7 in two years, and then he moved to Portsmouth, Ohio, where he coached football for five seasons before taking over the Middies. His current team has won 21 straight.

Walker is married and has one son, now in grade school.

Felere, the Class B choice, is in his 14th year at Troy-Luckey and has tutored his team to the regionals five times. Up to last night's game with Sycamore in the regional opener at Toledo, his team boasted a 24-1 record. His overall record at Troy-Luckey, excluding last night's contest, is 250 wins against 64 losses.

A native of Milton Center, Felere is a graduate of Bowling Green State University, where he played basketball—but no basketball. He's married and has a son and a daughter. The son, Robert, plays guard on the Troy-Luckey team.

Both Walker and Felere were convincing winners. Back of the Middletown hot-shot in Class A were Max Douglas of Newark, Bill Satterlee of Akron South, Charles (Red) Ash of Canton South, John Stuckey of St. Marys Memorial, Charles (Ben) Jeffery of Toledo Macomber, Chuck Williams of Shelby, Charles Joachim of Youngstown Rayen, John Broski of Cleveland East Tech, and Sid Haller of Dayton Kiser.

Ed DiGregorio of North Lima finished second to Felere in Class B. Others close up included Ken Neville of Columbus St. Mary, Bob Games of Willshire, Dale Bruce of Chagrin Falls, Don Kushing of Glenford, and Jim Gibson of Marysville.

In the outstanding player division, Jerry Lucas of Middletown—a sensational 6-foot 7-inch 15-year-old sophomore—was voted the No. 1 star in Class A, with Henry Josefczyk of Yorkville, 6-5 high scoring senior, the tops in Class B.

High up in Class A were John Milhoan of Gallipolis, Jim Darrow of Akron South, Larry Willey of Defiance, Gary Hornsby of Hamilton, Lee Patrone of Bellaire, Tom Schaefer of Alliance, Gene DeLoach of Cleveland East Tech and Max Messner of Ashland. Gary Kesler, Willshire's tall center, was close behind Josefczyk in Class B. Others high in the race were Bruce Plaskett of North Lima, John Mandish of Leetonia, Bob Kimball of Olney, Roland Bolts of Lockland Wayne, Jim Hamilton of Glenford and Ken Lauterer of Chagrin Falls.

All selections were based on games through March 3.

Nashua To Face Sternest Test

MIAMI, Fla. (P)—Nashua, the millionaire race horse, faces one of the sternest tests of his brilliant career in the $100,000 Gulfstream Park Handicap at a mile and a quarter tomorrow but his trainer says he is "ready."

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, who conditions Nashua, sent his 4-year-old star over the Hialeah Track yesterday and Nashua did the half mile in 46.25 and the five furlongs in a blistering .59.

Nashua will carry a crushing 129 pounds—heaviest of his career—and will spot his opponents from 4 to 19 pounds.

Small College Cage Tourney In Semifinals

KANSAS CITY (P)—McNeese State College of Louisiana, boasting the nation's top scorer, and Pittsburg (Kan.) State, a classy defensive outfit, meet tonight in the semifinals of the National Intercollegiate Basketball Tourney.

The other semifinal game pairs Texas Southern one of the three Negro teams in the starting field of 32, and Wheaton of Illinois.

Top-seeded Western Illinois was bounced from the tournament 83-76 last night by Pittsburg, seeded No. 7.

Bill Reigel of McNeese has scored 1,171 points in 34 games this season, including 34 in McNeese's 76-48 conquest of Tennessee A&I last night, and 33 and 43 in two previous games here. That gave him an average of 34.4.

Reigel needs just 34 points to break the single-tournament scoring record of 143 set by Scotty Steagal of Millikin University in 1951. His total of 1,171 is only 84 points short of the all-time single-season high set by Bevo Francis of Rio Grande three years ago.

Yesterday's quarterfinal results: McNeese 76, Tennessee A&I 68; Texas Southern 85, Midwestern (Wichita Falls, Tex.) 82; Pittsburg 83, Western Illinois 76; Wheaton 90, Gustavus-Adolphus 73.

Pro Cagers Set For Playoffs

NEW YORK (P)—The National Basketball Assn. playoffs open tomorrow in Boston and St. Louis. The field for the playoff was completed yesterday when the Syracuse Nationals defeated New York's Knickerbockers 82-77 to break a deadlock for third place in the eastern division.

As the result the Nats will open a best-of-three series against the Celtics in Boston tomorrow afternoon. The game will be televised.

Candidate's Name Ordered On Ballot

CLEVELAND (P)—The Court of Appeals has ruled that Edward L. Puel's name should be placed on the May 8 primary ballot as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention next summer. The Board of Elections threw out his petitions, ruling that certain signatures were invalid.

The appellate court ruled that the petitions had the required 103 valid signatures. It added that the board "disregarded the sworn testimony of witnesses and asked for no expert help in comparing signatures in question." Puel filed as part of Gov. Frank J. Lausche's "favorite son" delegation.

Santee Legal Battle Delayed

CLEVELAND (P)—His court battle to remain an amateur continued until Monday, Wes Santee runs the mile here tonight against token opposition and the meet record he set.

It will be the third race for the 23-year-old Marine lieutenant since the Amateur Athletic Union's Executive Committee by a 14-1 vote suspended him for life.

After opening statements in the State Supreme Court in New York yesterday, a recess was declared until Monday in Santee's effort to get a permanent injunction preventing the AAU from enforcing its ban. Meanwhile, a temporary injunction remains in force against the AAU action.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — More than 4,000 acres of land have been added to state forests in Ohio under a cooperative deer management program, between the Ohio Division of Wildlife and the Ohio Division of Forestry, launched in October, 1951.

The project is financed with revenue from the special five dollar Ohio deer hunting permit and under its provisions 60 percent of the funds may be spent for acquisition of lands, to be administered by the Division of Forestry, managed for deer and open for public hunting, 25 percent for handling deer seasons and for deer food improvement, and 15 percent for inventories and other investigations of the Ohio deer herd.

Lands have been added to six State forests under the program: Shawnee, Pike, Zaleski, Brush Creek, Athens and Tar Hollow.

A total of $53,103.75 from deer permit funds has been expended on 27 tracts of land needed to round out the boundaries of existing state forests. Deer food improvement work has been accomplished in the Zaleski and Shawnee State Forests. Besides the land acquisition program in state forest areas, Hayden W. Olds, chief of the Division of Wildlife, reports that considerable revenue from deer permit sales is expended annually on deer food improvement among a group of state-owned wildlife areas situated throughout the major deer range of eastern Ohio.

The balance of the funds are used for special law enforcement effort during deer seasons, printing of the special permits, metal tags and incidentals. According to Olds, 36,257 deer permits were sold for the 1955 season, which brought in a total of $181,255 to the division.

Under the provisions of the law which established the special $5 deer hunting permit, all of the revenue must be expended for deer management purposes.

An estimated 4,300 deer were taken with gun and bow and arrow during the 1955 season and the Ohio deer population at the present time is believed to be about 28,000 animals.

Stengel Says Mantle Can Bat Any Way

LAKELAND, Fla. (P)—Mickey Mantle was in the batting cage taking his swings before the Detroit-New York exhibition baseball game. Someone noticed he was hitting "right handed" against a right handed pitcher.

"He's worried about his hitting from that side," Casey Stengel drawled. "I guess he figures he needs more practice as a right hander. His only two home runs so far this spring were hit from the opposite side."

Hitting with the wind, Mickey promptly blasted four straight pitches over the left field wall. "Why should I insist on his hitting only right handed?" he snorted in answer to a question. "Take a look at his home run record last year."

Someone produced a Yankee press book and read that 27 of Mantle's 37 home runs were hit left handed.

"See what I mean?" Casey said. Wasn't that because he saw a lot more right handers than southpaws?

"You may have something there."

Middletown, Troy-Luckey Pilots Named Top Coaches

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Paul Walker of Middletown, winner of three Ohio high school Class A basketball championships, and Doyce Felere of Troy-Luckey (Wood County), today were named the state's top scholastic cage coaches.

The pair of 44-year-old mentors was selected by brother coaches and sports writers in the annual poll conducted by The Associated Press in connection with the All-Ohio team voting.

Walker, winner of the Class A award, is in his 11th campaign with the top-ranked Middies. Over that stretch he has won 193 and lost 39, grabbing the state championship in 1947, 1952 and 1953.

A native of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., Walker was graduated by Western Kentucky in 1935. At Anchorage, Ky., High School his teams won 44 and lost 7 in two years, and then he moved to Portsmouth, Ohio, where he coached football for five seasons before taking over the Middies. His current team has won 21 straight.

Walker is married and has one son, now in grade school.

Felere, the Class B choice, is in his 14th year at Troy-Luckey and has tutored his team to the regional five times. Up to last night's game with Sycamore in the regional opener at Toledo, his team boasted a 24-1 record. His overall record at Troy-Luckey, excluding last night's contest, is 250 wins against 64 losses.

A native of Milton Center, Felere is a graduate of Bowling Green State University, where he played baseball—but no basketball. He's married and has a son and a daughter. The son, Robert, plays guard on the Troy-Luckey team.

Both Walker and Felere were convincing winners. Back of the Middletown hot-shot in Class A were Max Douglas of Newark, Bill Satterlee of Akron South, Charles (Red) Ash of Canton South, John Stuckey of St. Marys Memorial, Charles (Ben) Jeffery of Toledo Maconber, Chuck Williams of Shelby, Charles Joachim of Youngstown Rayen, John Broski of Cleveland East Tech, and Sid Haller of Dayton Kiser.

Ed DiGregorio of North Lima finished second to Felere in Class B. Others close up included Ken Neville of Columbus St. Mary, Bob Games of Willshire, Dale Bruce of Chagrin Falls, Don Kushing of Glenford, and Jim Gibson of Marysville.

In the outstanding player division, Jerry Lucas of Middletown—a sensational 6-foot 7-inch 15-year-old sophomore—was voted the No. 1 star in Class A, with Henry Josefczyk of Yorkville, 6-5 high-scoring senior, the tops in Class B.

High up in Class A were John Milhoan of Gallipolis, Jim Darrow of Akron South, Larry Willey of Defiance, Gary Hornsby of Hamilton, Lee Patrone of Bellaire, Tom Schaefer of Alliance, Gene DeLoach of Cleveland East Tech and Max Messner of Ashland.

Gary Kesler, Willshire's tall center, was close behind Josefczyk in Class B. Others high in the race were Bruce Plaskett of North Lima, John Mandish of Leetonia, Bob Kimball of Olney, Roland Bolds of Lockland Wayne, Jim Hamilton of Glenford and Ken Lauterer of Chagrin Falls.

All selections were based on games through March 3.

Nashua To Face Sternest Test

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Nashua, the millionaire race horse, faces one of the sternest tests of his brilliant career in the $100,000 Gulfstream Park Handicap at a mile and a quarter tomorrow but his trainer says he is "ready."

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, who conditions Nashua, sent his 4-year-old star over the Hialeah Track yesterday and Nashua did the half mile in :46.25 and the five furlongs in a blistering :59.

Nashua will carry a crushing 129 pounds—heaviest of his career—and will spot his opponents from 4 to 19 pounds.

Small College Cage Tourney In Semifinals

KANSAS CITY (AP)—McNeese State College of Louisiana, boasting the nation's top scorer, and Pittsburg (Kan.) State, a classy defensive outfit, meet tonight in the semifinals of the National Intercollegiate Basketball Tourney.

The other semifinal game pairs Texas Southern one of the three Negro teams in the starting field of 32, and Wheaton of Illinois.

Top-seeded Western Illinois was bounced from the tournament 83-76 last night by Pittsburg, seeded No. 7.

Bill Reigel of McNeese has scored 1,171 points in 34 games this season, including 34 in McNeese's 76-48 conquest of Tennessee A&I last night, and 33 and 43 in two previous games here. That gave him an average of 34.4.

Reigel needs just 34 points to break the single-tournament scoring record of 143 set by Scotty Steagal of Millikin University in 1951. His total of 1,171 is only 84 points short of the all-time single-season high set by Bevo Francis of Rio Grande three years ago.

Yesterday's quarterfinal results: McNeese 76, Tennessee A&I 68; Texas Southern 85, Midwestern (Wichita Falls, Tex.) 82; Pittsburg 83, Western Illinois 76; Wheaton 90, Gustavus-Adolphus 73.

Pro Cagers Set For Playoffs

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Assn. playoffs open tomorrow in Boston and St. Louis.

The field for the playoff was completed yesterday when the Syracuse Nationals defeated New York's Knickerbockers 82-77 to break a deadlock for third place in the eastern division.

As the result the Nats will open a best-of-three series against the Celtics in Boston tomorrow afternoon. The game will be televised.

Candidate's Name Ordered On Ballot

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Court of Appeals has ruled that Edward L. Pucel's name should be placed on the May 8 primary ballot as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention next summer. The Board of Elections threw out his petitions, ruling that certain signatures were invalid.

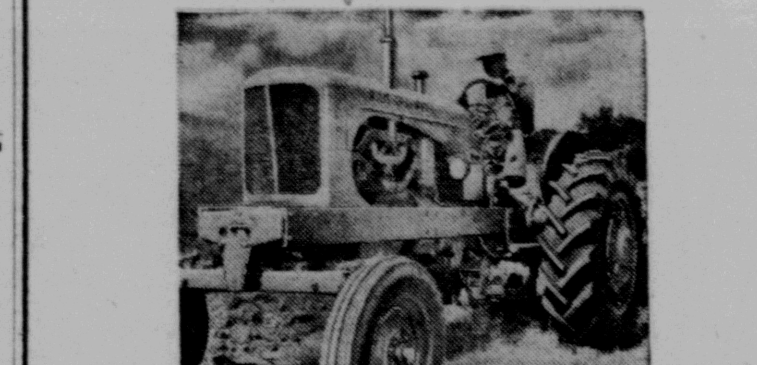

The appellate court ruled that the petitions had the required 103 valid signatures. It added that the board "disregarded the sworn testimony of witnesses and asked for no expert help in comparing signatures in question." Pucel filed as part of Gov. Frank J. Lausche's "favorite son" delegation.

Santee Legal Battle Delayed

CLEVELAND (AP)—His court battle to remain an amateur continued until Monday, Wes Santee runs the mile here tonight against token opposition and the meet record he set.

It will be the third race for the 23-year-old Marine lieutenant since the Amateur Athletic Union's Executive Committee by a 14-1 vote suspended him for life.

After opening statements in the State Supreme Court in New York yesterday, a recess was declared until Monday in Santee's effort to get a permanent injunction preventing the AAU from enforcing its ban. Meanwhile, a temporary injunction remains in force against the AAU action.

"IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—More than 4,000 acres of land have been added to state forests in Ohio under a cooperative deer management program, between the Ohio Division of Wildlife and the Ohio Division of Forestry, launched in October, 1951.

The project is financed with revenue from the special five dollar Ohio deer hunting permit and under its provisions 60 percent of the funds may be spent for acquisition of lands, to be administered by the Division of Forestry, managed for deer and open for public hunting, 25 percent for handling deer seasons and for deer food improvement, and 15 percent for inventory and other investigations of the Ohio deer herd.

Lands have been added to six State forests under the program: Shawnee, Pike, Zaleski, Brush Creek, Athens and Tar Hollow.

A total of $53,103.75 from deer permit funds has been expended on 27 tracts of land needed to round out the boundaries of existing state forests. Deer food improvement work has been accomplished in the Zaleski and Shawnee State Forests.

Besides the land acquisition program in state forest areas, Hayden W. Olds, chief of the Division of Wildlife, reports that considerable revenue from deer permit sales is expended annually on deer food improvement among a group of state-owned wildlife areas situated throughout the major deer range of eastern Ohio.

The balance of the funds are used for special law enforcement effort during deer seasons, printing of the special permits, metal tags and incidentals. According to Olds, 36,257 deer permits were sold for the 1955 season, which brought in a total of $181,285 to the division.

Under the provisions of the law which established the special $5 deer hunting permit, all of the revenue must be expended for deer management purposes.

An estimated 4,300 deer were taken with gun and bow and arrow during the 1955 season and the Ohio deer population at the present time is believed to be about 28,000 animals.

Stengel Says Mantle Can Bat Any Way

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Mickey Mantle was in the batting cage taking his swings before the Detroit-New York exhibition baseball game. Someone noticed he was hitting "right" handed against a right handed pitcher.

"He's worried about his hitting from that side," Casey Stengel drawled. "I guess he figures he needs more practice as a right hander. His only two home runs so far this spring were hit from the opposite side."

Hitting with the wind, Mickey promptly blasted four straight pitches over the left field wall.

"Why should I insist on his hitting only right handed?" he snorted in answer to a question. "Take a look at his home run record last year."

Someone produced a Yankee press book and read that 27 of Mantle's 37 home runs were hit left handed.

"See what I mean?" Casey said. Wasn't that because he saw a lot more right handers than southpaws?

"You may have something there."

Dayton Flyers OK Sugar Bowl Test

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Dayton Flyers, third ranked team in the nation, will play in the Sugar Bowl basketball tourney Dec. 28-29.

Claude Simons, chairman of the Sugar Bowl's basketball committee, said Coach Tommy Blackburn accepted the invitation.

The universities of Kentucky and St. Louis previously accepted invitations to the tournament. A fourth team will be named later.

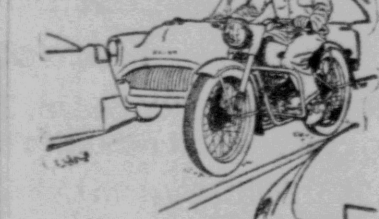

54 Plaster Par In St. Pete Open

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A tightly bunched field of par-busters, with Lionel Hebert nursing a lead of one lone stroke, swung in to the second round of the St. Petersburg Open today.

And from the way this classy collection of swingers manhandled the Lakewood Country Club course yesterday par golf or better will be required to qualify for the final 36 holes and a shot at the $12,500 prize money.

Fifty-three pros and one amateur bettered the par of 36-36-72 over the 6,489-yard course in the opening round.

DON'S USED CARS

1955 BUICK Century Riviera Coupe. Equipped with power steering, power brakes, radio, heater, dynaflow transmission, special paint, white tires, wheel trim and all other deluxe accessories. Entire car in finest condition. Owned and serviced locally.

1954 OLDSMOBILE Convertible Coupe. Just coming into the best season to enjoy this fine sport car.
Beautiful two tone special paint with dark blue top to match. Tires changed from new car so have no miles on them. Power steering, brakes, seat and windows, radio, heater, automatic headlamp dim-mer. All leather trim. You will have to spend in excess of $4500.00 to buy a finer car. See and drive this one. It looks and acts like new.

1953 MERCURY 4 door Sedan, nice black with cream top paint job. One owner who had pride in her car has given this one the best of care. The 25,000 miles has not hurt this car. You'll like it if you try it.
Well equipped with accessories. Mercomatic.

1953 PONTIAC Chieftain Deluxe 4 door Sedan. An 8 cylinder, hydramatic car in extra nice condition. For the family who wants a long-lived automobile for a reasonable price. One owner.

1953 CHEVROLET Bel Aire Coupe. Power glide transmission, radio, heater, new white sidewall tires, one local owner. This is the most popular style and is far above average. Look this one over for sure

1953 PLYMOUTH 4 door Sedan. We can give you an extra good buy on this car. Much service for few dollars

1953 OLDSMOBILE Super "88" two door Sedan. Here is a high performance car large enough to give roadability and riding quality and small enough to handle like a dream in traffic. One owner, locally serviced. A trial run will sell you.

1952 FORD V 8 Customline 2 door. We have just installed a brand new engine in this car and it is ready to give you super service for many miles. Body and interior real nice. See this.

1952 OLDSMOBILE Super "88" 4 door Sedan. Radio, heater, hydramatic. A real smooth performer.

1951 STUDEBAKER V 8 Commander 4 door. Clean as a whistle anywhere you look, tires, engine, body, and paint are in excellent condition. Overdrive for road performance and extra economy.

We have a big selection of cars not listed above. -
From 1947 models thru 1956.

Elmer Armbrust Called by Death

Well Known Here In Business World

Elmer Frank Armbrust, 68, well known business man, died at his home on the Flake's Ford Road Thursday at 5 P. M., following several years of failing health.

Elmer F. Armbrust

Mr. Armbrust had been a patient at Memorial Hospital for observation and treatment, and returned home Wednesday evening.

He lost his sight in 1937, but in spite of this handicap, he carried on extensive business interests. He devoted much of his time to his large farming operations, the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry and his concrete and building supply business here.

He was a tireless worker and had looked after business matters up to within a few hours of his death.

Born in Pike County, he came to Fayette County at an early age and resided on various farms for many years.

In addition to his extensive land holdings, he was the owner and active manager of the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry and Armbrust concrete and building supply plant located in the southern part of the city along the DT&I Railroad.

He established the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry on Route 70, on the banks of Sugar Creek, in 1927.

FOR OVER 23 years he was a member of the Board of Education of Union Township.

Regardless of his other varied interests, he devoted much time to church affairs as well as to school business.

He was a member of the Sugar Grove Methodist Church, and organized the Men's Brotherhood of that church.

In 1947 he was chosen honor citizen of Fayette County.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Rosie Garinger Armbrust; five sons, Alvin, Elden, Freddie, Willard and Ronald, all of Washington C. H.; four daughters, Mrs. Hazel Caplinger, Mrs. Kitty Workman, city; Mrs. Bonnie True of Fairfax, Va., and Mrs. Joretta Brunner, city; a brother, W. A. Armbrust, here; a foster sister, Mrs. George Lady of Washington, D. C.; 22 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 P. M. at Sugar Grove Church. Interment in the Washington C. H. Cemetery under direction of the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home. Rev. Neil H. Peterson of Cincinnati, former pastor of the church, will conduct the services. He will be assisted by Rev. Eugene Frazer, also a former pastor, and Rev. Ralph E. Yoss.

Friends may call at the Armbrust home Saturday and until the hour of the funeral.

SALARIES FIXED
CIRCLEVILLE — Salaries of Justices of the Peace in Pickaway County have been fixed. Walter Heise, South Bloomfield, draws $250 per month and several others will draw $500 yearly.

Good Hope Lions Entertain Squad

All-American Player Speaks To Group

The 17 boys of the Good Hope High School basketball squads, the four managers and four cheerleaders were the guests of honor at Thursday night's regular meeting of the Good Hope Lions club.

Following the roast beef dinner that was served by the women of the WCU, the Lions and their guest heard a former All American basketball player emphasize the value of teamwork and enthusiastic spirit in achieving success whether on the field of sports or in the world of business.

John Horan, who took the national basketball spotlight as the star of the University of Dayton Flyers last year, was introduced by Lefty McFadden, Dayton newspaper sports columnist and television commentator.

McFadden recalled the days when he played baseball with Mike Helfrich's team at New Holland before he presented the All-American Horan.

There were four other guests at the meeting: Robert Cockerill, a candidate for the Republican nomination for commissioner; Glenn Griffith, who is seeking the Republican nomination for county auditor; Gordon Cowdery, president of the Bloomingburg Lions Club, and Jess Schlichter, a member of the Bloomingburg Club and the auctioneer who conducted the Good Hope Club's "white elephant sale" last month.

THE BEST was made of the opportunity to publicly express the club's appreciation to Schlichter for his help in its fund-raising venture. Despite the blizzard that whipped the countryside that day, the sale netted a little more than $600, the treasurer reported. The result of the auction was considered "unusually good" by the Good Hope Lions and they told the auctioneer so.

There was not much business on the evening's program, but time was taken for a short discussion of plans for going to the district convention at Vandalia Sunday.

The committee spokesman an-

Former Pastor To Sing Here

Church Of Christ To Have Program

A former pastor, Rev. Curtis Dickinson, is to present a concert of sacred music at the South Side Church of Christ next Sunday afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock.

Rev. Curtis Dickinson

The varied program will include such selections as "Sunrise With the Master" by Harry A. Dinsmore, "Come, Ye Blessed" by John Prindle Scott, "Leave It with Him" by James G. Ellis, "The Penitent" by Beardsley Van De Water, "Bluebird of Happiness" by Sandor Harmati, "Stouthearted Men" by Sigmund Romberg, "Teh Living Christ" by Curtis Dickinson, "Longing For Jesus" by Richard D. Baker, "I Took My Troubles to Calvary" by Ira Stanphill, and "A Memory" by A. H. Ackley.

Rev. Dickinson, a tenor, is a graduate of Pacific Bible Seminary and took graduate work in the Cincinnati Bible Seminary.

He is currently holding a revival meeting at the New Holland Church of Christ. Following the service, March 25, the New Holland people will have a short sacred concert at their church. The service is scheduled to start at 7 P. M.

The public is invited to both services and a special invitation is being extended to surrounding churches.

nounced that the four Fayette County clubs — in Bloomingburg, Good Hope, Jeffersonville and Washington C. H. — had chartered a bus for the trip and that those who make the trip in it should be at the Union Bus Station, North Main Street, here at 10:30 A. M.

There also was some informal talk about the dinner dance that is to be held at London on April 28 for the ten clubs in this zone.

Milk Truck Upsets In Roadside Ditch

A milk truck, driven by Virgil Louis Althouse of Greenfield skidded on the slippery surface of Route 22, two miles east of Washington C. H. at the Joe Hamm farm, about 8 A. M. Friday, and overturned in the ditch.

Most of the load of milk escaped damage and Althouse was not injured, although badly shaken up and frightened. Sheriff Orland Hays checked the accident.

John W. Stuckey Dies At Home Here

John W. Stuckey, 74, died at his home here at 5 P. M. Thursday. He had been in failing health for seven years.

A former employee of the Ladoga Canning Co., he was a native of Adams County but had spent most of his life in Fayette County. He was a member of the Christian Community Church on Paint Street.

He is survived by his wife, Goldie; two children, Anna Katherine and Larry Valdo, both at home; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Helen Burlile, and five stepsons, Daryl Hamby and William, James, Edward and Lester Seymore, all of this city.

He also leaves two brothers, William Stuckey of Sabina and Mont Stuckey of Wilmington, and a sister, Mrs. Fannie Stoops of Latham.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Saturday at the Christian Community Church on Paint Street, with Rev. Deibert Harper in charge. Burial will be in the family lot in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home here after 4 P. M. Friday.

To Resurface Part Of State Route 70

The State Highway Department has issued a call for bids to be opened April 3, for resurfacing 5.3 miles of State Route 70, in Jefferson Township, Fayette County, and Stokes Township, Madison County.

The resurfacing is to be with asphaltic concrete and the width of the road as 20 feet.

Wood chips have been found to make a good material for livestock bedding through research conducted at Purdue University.

Concert Series Come to an End

Piano, Violin Duo Concludes Season

A program by two musical artists concluded the ninth annual Washington C. H. Community Concert season Thursday evening with what many members described as "the best concert of the series."

James de la Fuente, violinist, and Herbert Stessin, piano, presented an evening of music that demonstrated their mastery of their instruments from the beginning selection to the closing encores.

Each musician was spotlighted in solo roles and then heard in compositions for the two instruments in ensemble.

Soloist de la Fuente first played Corelli's "La Folia". This was followed with "Ave Maria" by Schubert, always a concert favorite, and the Saint-Saens composition "Rondo Capriccioso".

THE SMALL but appreciative and responsive audience applauded Pianist Herbert Stessin for his opening trio of selections, Chopin's "Ocean" Etude, a "Lullaby" by Tschaikowsky and a presentation of "Perpetuum mobile," a light work by von Weber which was played at an almost breathless speed from the opening notes to the end.

Prior to the intermission period, the two artists combined their talents in a Brahms "Sonata" that balanced the brilliance of both the violin and piano parts as a further example of the many outstanding compositions written for just such a concert duo.

"Sonata-Fantaisie, written by Vil la-Lobos, one of the most distinguished of modern composers, followed the intermission.

Two solo piano numbers by Stessin showed the technique and musical ability which has brought him repeat recitals at New York's Carnegie and Town Halls. His "Nocturne for Left Hand Alone" amazed the audience that such music could be produced with only one hand.

Three famous virtuosi composers Paganini-Buzoni and Liszt combined their abilities in "La Campanella" (the little bells) and Stessin brought out each note of the music which it contained.

THE THREE concluding selections on the program featured the two musicians, first in a descriptive tone poem "The Fountain of Arethuse", next Massenet's familiar "Meditation from Thais" and closed with a "Carmen Fantasy" based on the theme and motifs of the opera "Carmen" and arranged by Violinist de la Fuente.

All of the well known melodies from this popular opera were included in the work and brought to conclusion.

Fuente and Mr. Stessin concluded

Elmer Armbrust Called by Death

Well Known Here
In Business World

Elmer Frank Armbrust, 68, well known business man, died at his home on the Flake's Ford Road Thursday at 5 P. M., following several years of failing health.

Elmer F. Armbrust

Mr. Armbrust had been a patient at Memorial Hospital for observation and treatment, and returned home Wednesday evening.

He lost his sight in 1937, but in spite of this handicap, he carried on extensive business interests. He devoted much of his time to his large farming operations, the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry and his concrete and building supply business here.

He was a tireless worker and had looked after business matters up to within a few hours of his death.

Born in Pike County, he came to Fayette County at an early age and resided on various farms for many years.

In addition to his extensive land holdings, he was the owner and active manager of the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry and Armbrust concrete and building supply plant located in the southern part of the city along the DT&I Railroad.

He established the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry on Route 70, on the banks of Sugar Creek, in 1927.

FOR OVER 23 years he was a member of the Board of Education of Union Township.

Regardless of his other varied interests, he devoted much time to church affairs as well as to school business.

He was a member of the Sugar Grove Methodist Church, and organized the Men's Brotherhood of that church.

In 1947 he was chosen honor citizen of Fayette County.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Rosie Garinger Armbrust; five sons, Alvin, Elden, Freddie, Wilard and Ronald, all of Washington C. H.; four daughters, Mrs. Hazel Caplinger, Mrs. Kitty Workman, city; Mrs. Bonnie True of Fairfax, Va., and Mrs. Joretta Bruner, city; a brother, W. A. Armbrust, here; a foster sister, Mrs. George Lady of Washington, D. C.; 22 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 P. M. at Sugar Grove Church. Interment in the Washington C. H. Cemetery under direction of the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home.

Rev. Neil H. Peterson of Cincinnati, former pastor of the church, will conduct the services. He will be assisted by Rev. Eugene Frazer, also a former pastor, and Rev. Ralph E. Yoss.

Friends may call at the Armbrust home Saturday and until the hour of the funeral.

Good Hope Lions Entertain Squad

All-American Player
Speaks To Group

The 17 boys of the Good Hope High School basketball squads, the four managers and four cheerleaders were the guests of honor at Thursday night's regular meeting of the Good Hope Lions club.

Following the roast beef dinner that was served by the women of the WCTU, the Lions and their guest heard a former All-American basketball player emphasize the value of teamwork and enthusiastic spirit in achieving success whether on the field of sports or in the world of business.

John Horan, who took the national basketball spotlight as the star of the University of Dayton Flyers last year, was introduced by Lefty McFadden, Dayton newspaper sports columnist and television commentator.

McFadden recalled the days when he played baseball with Mike Helfrich's team at New Holland before he presented the All-American Horan.

There were four other guests at the meeting: Robert Cockerill, a candidate for the Republican nomination for commissioner; Glenn Griffith, who is seeking the Republican nomination for county auditor; Gordon Cowdery, president of the Bloomingburg Lions Club, and Jess Schlichter, a member of the Bloomingburg Club and the auctioneer who conducted the Good Hope Club's "white elephant sale" last month.

THE BEST was made of the opportunity to publicly express the club's appreciation to Schlichter for his help in its fund-raising venture. Despite the blizzard that whipped the countryside that day, the sale netted a little more than $600, the treasurer reported. The result of the auction was considered "unusually good" by the Good Hope Lions and they told the auctioneer so.

There was not much business on the evening's program, but time was taken for a short discussion of plans for going to the district convention at Vandalia Sunday.

Former Pastor To Sing Here

Church Of Christ
To Have Program

A former pastor, Rev. Curtis Dickinson, is to present a concert of sacred music at the South Side Church of Christ next Sunday afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock.

Rev. Curtis Dickinson

The varied program will include such selections as "Sunrise With the Master" by Harry A. Dinsmore, "Come, Ye Blessed" by John Prindle Scott, "Leave It With Him" by James G. Ellis, "The Penitent" by Beardsley Van De Water, "Bluebird of Happiness" by Sandor Harmati, "Stouthearted Men" by Sigmund Romberg, "Teh Living Christ" by Curtis Dickinson, "Longing For Jesus" by Richard D. Baker, "I Took My Troubles to Calvary" by Ira Stanphill, and "A Memory" by A. H. Ackley.

Rev. Dickinson, a tenor, is a graduate of Pacific Bible Seminary and took graduate work in the Cincinnati Bible Seminary.

He is currently holding a revival meeting at the New Holland Church of Christ. Following the service, March 25, the New Holland people will have a short sacred concert at their church. The service is scheduled to start at 7 P. M.

The public is invited to both services and a special invitation is being extended to surrounding churches.

Announced that the four Fayette County clubs — in Bloomingburg, Good Hope, Jeffersonville and Washington C. H. — had chartered a bus for the trip and that those who make the trip in it should be at the Union Bus Station, North Main Street, here at 10:30 A. M.

There also was some informal talk about the dinner dance that is to be held at London on April 28 for the ten clubs in this zone.

Milk Truck Upsets In Roadside Ditch

A milk truck, driven by Virgil Louis Althouse of Greenfield skidded on the slippery surface of Route 22, two miles east of Washington C. H. at the Joe Hamm farm, about 8 A. M. Friday, and overturned in the ditch.

Most of the load of milk escaped damage and Althouse was not injured, although badly shaken up and frightened. Sheriff Orland Hays checked the accident.

John W. Stuckey Dies At Home Here

John W. Stuckey, 74, died at his home here at 5 P. M. Thursday. He had been in failing health for seven years.

A former employee of the Ladoga Canning Co., he was a native of Adams County but had spent most of his life in Fayette County. He was a member of the Christian Community Church on Paint Street.

He is survived by his wife, Goldie; two children, Anna Katherine and Larry Valdo, both at home; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Helen Burile, and five stepsons, Daryl Hamby and William, James, Edward and Lester Seymour, all of this city.

He also leaves two brothers, William Stuckey of Sabina and Mont Stuckey of Wilmington, and a sister, Mrs. Fannie Stoops of Latham.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Saturday at the Christian Community Church on Paint Street, with Rev. Deibert Harper in charge. Burial will be in the family lot in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home here after 4 P. M. Friday.

To Resurface Part Of State Route 70

The State Highway Department has issued a call for bids to be opened April 3, for resurfacing 5.3 miles of State Route 70, in Jefferson Township, Fayette County, and Stokes Township, Madison County.

The resurfacing is to be with asphaltic concrete and the width of the road as 20 feet.

Wood chips have been found to make a good material for livestock bedding through research conducted at Purdue University.

Concert Series Come to an End

Piano, Violin Duo
Concludes Season

A program by two musical artists concluded the ninth annual Washington C. H. Community Concert season Thursday evening with what many members described as "the best concert of the series."

James de la Fuente, violinist, and Herbert Stessin, piano, presented an evening of music that demonstrated their mastery of their instruments from the beginning selection to the closing encores.

Each musician was spotlighted in solo roles and then heard in compositions for the two instruments in ensemble.

Soloist de la Fuente first played Corelli's "La Folia". This was followed with "Ave Maria" by Schubert, always a concert favorite, and the Saint-Saens composition "Rondo Capriccioso".

THE SMALL but appreciative and responsive audience applauded Pianist Herbert Stessin for his opening trio of selections, Chopin's "Ocean" Etude, a "Lullaby" by Tchaikowsky and a presentation of "Perpetuum mobile," a light work by von Weber which was played at an almost breathless

All of the well known melodies from this popular opera were included in the work and brought to conclusion.
